- Although they will normally take your wishes into account, the Trustees may consider that there are special reasons for selecting other beneficiaries, or no beneficiary at all with regards to the adult dependant's pension.
- You may not impose any conditions as to the use of the benefit once we pay it, irrespective of what may be stated in your will.
- Children's pensions may also be payable. If they are aged under 18 and the Trustees decide to award the death benefits to them under trust then the Trustees' will not be responsible for the legal costs associated with setting up that trust.
- Please note that the Trustees will always seek documentary evidence of financial inter-dependency before a decision is made as to whether or not to pay a pension to an adult dependant.
- The conditions surrounding payment of the adult dependant's pension can be found in your Scheme Guide.
